Scranton, Pa. Feb. 9 (By A. P.) First massed demonstration of the 5-month-old coal strike occurred today when 500 miners marched on two washeries here in protest against hydraulic production of coal which their leader asserted was "taking the bread out of their mouths." They were dispersed by 25 policemen armed with sawed-off shotguns. None was injured.

The police detained three men who identified themselves as leadsequently released them with warn ings. At the same time Chief of Police Rose announced the establishment of a "riot squad" at police headquarters sufficient to cope with any emergency that might arise in the future. He also sent for some tear gas.

President Approves Death for Thompson

President Coolidge has approved the death sentence asked in the Philippines by an army court martial for Second Lieut. John S.

Thempson. Official announcement of his decision probably will be made within a day or two.

Lieut. Thompson, a graduate of West Point, class of 1924, was convicted last May in Manila of murdering Audrey Burlielgh, an 18-year-old Memphis girl, who was visiting her stepfather, an officer in the army medical corps. The officer had quarreled with the girl for taking part in an amateur theatrical production.

The steamships Pittsburgh, Celtic and United States were forced to anchor off the Statue of Liberty after they left quarantine. The Mauretania and the Carmania, due at quarantine this morning, were held up off Ambrose lightship. The liner Minnetonka managed to creep up the Hudson several hours late.

SOLVING TRAFFIC PROBLEMS.

Director of Traffic Eldridge, it would seem is making a mistake in insisting that the first session of the newly organized traffic council on February 15 shall be a star-chamber proceeding. Mr. Eldridge has been invited to appear before the members of the new association, which was formed to make a thorough study of the traffic problem, in order that the citizens might be informed as to the conditions. He has requested that the meeting be in closed session because he does not desire any pub-

Apparently the traffic director has a wrong conception of the purposes of the new organization. The promoters of the association feel that there is something wrong with the present traffic conditions in Washington. If the fault lies with the regulations prescribed by the traffic bureau and the police department then it is believed these rules should be changed, and the citizens' traffic council proposes to recommend such changes as are deemed necessary. If, on the other hand, the great body of the people has failed in its interpretation of the somewhat complex traffic code or its observance of the regulations, the council proposes to educate the people, if that be possible. Surely nothing could be fairer. It wants first to find the cause for the unsatisfactory conditions in this city and then make an effort to remove the cause.

Secret discussions will not clear the atmosphere. Mr. Eldridge certainly has nothing to say to the members of the traffic council that the public should not know. What is desirable, what is necessary, if traffic conditions in Washington are to be bettered, is frank and open discussion of the situation as well as intelligent and earnest cooperation between the public and the authorities. In no other way can the problem be satisfactorily solved.

The United Restaurant Owners association of New York has started a movement to eliminate the words "waiter" and "waitress" from their glossaries. They consider that the terms have a "soupcon" of the menial, and that there should be substituted a term more dignified to designate the bosses of the dining rooms and banquet halls. It was all right to call the hash slinger of Beefsteak Johnny's old joint a waiter. That "gent" was satisfied with a nickel tip after he had served coffee and sinkers or eggs, "sunny side up," but today when plain ham and eggs appear on the menu as "jambon aux oeufs" and a tip of less than 50 cents is accepted only with a sneer, the word "waiter" is a misnomer. Over in France they used to be called "garcon" and were dressed in a sort of parody on the Eton jacket. Now they are known as "maitre d'hotel." and they wear dinner coats made, apparently, by a Bond street tailor. Let's call them "maitres;" they are bosses, anyhow.

LLOYD GEORGE'S TACTICS.

The British political quidnuncs had something of an unusually engrossing nature to gossip about last week. Every one in England is agog as to the future fate of the liberal party, linked up, as it largely is, on the one with the quasi-socialistic proposals of Lloyd George for land reform, and, on the other, with the suggested fusion of its more advanced elements with the saner and less communistic section of the laborites. Judge then of the excitement caused in the purlieus of Westminster when, in the course of the debate in the house of commons on the king's speech. Philip Snowden, who was chancellor of the exchequer in the labor government, declared in a somewhat significant way that he preferred the land scheme of Lloyd George to the agricultural plan put forward by the conservative leader, Premier Baldwin. Interest was raised to the highest pitch when, shortly thereafter, Lloyd George went over to the front labor bench and sat for ten minutes in earnes conversation with Snowden.

Such evident signs of a rapprochement were too much of a bonne bouche not to be served up in various tempting ways. Next morning the columns of the newspapers were full of the subject of a liberal-labor amalgamation: Some writers, more inspired than their fellows. or at least endowed with a livelier imagination, proceeded to read into the incidents the genesis of a brand-new party. Even staid ministers of the crown were somewhat excited over the bureau has made exactly 224 surveys and reapparent trend of events, and one of them publicly alluded, as much in earnest as in jest, to the "glad eye" given by the labor former chancellor to the liberal leader. The lobbies of the house of commons fairly buzzed with rumors. It was in vain for Lloyd George to bureau of education full credit for its laudable protest that the consultation had no political ignificance, that it was merely a case of "two intelligent and well-informed minds approach- ness of the States. Just what excuse there ing the same problem with an earnest and honest desire to solve it on the right lines." The whisperings would not down.

But there was another tale to tell when the division was taken on the labor amendment to the king's speech, for Lloyd George and Connecticut or the State of Maine with their his followers joined the conservatives in voting it down, by 299 to 112. Thereupon all the rious speculations were blown into thin air. It was, however, noticed that only the coalitionist liberals followed the coalition former premier into the "No" lobby; the more radical ling of pride in its educational institutions, and elements of the party abstained from voting. while individual educators and State politicians

Thus the liberal split continues, and no one pretends to be able to foretell with any degree of accuracy what will be the final outcome of a most involved political situation.

MUSSOLINT'S WARNING.

Premier Mussolini's remarkable speech in the Italian parliament has attracted worldwide attention to the difficult and dangerous problem of European minorities. No doubt Signor Mussolini wished to call the world's attention to the problem and to bring to an issue the question whether or not a nation shall have the right to suppress subversive teachings and antinational tendencies within its own territories. He virtually alleged that the German government was fomenting a propaganda in southern Tyrol, designed to alienate that region from Italy and pave the way for reunion with Austria. He regarded this as political aggression, and his extremely vigorous remarks were both a warning to Germany and declaration in behalf of the fascists of Italy's determination to defend her territory and her

Although Premier Mussolini's speech struck bellicose note which would hardly be expected to issue from the head of a government, the osition he takes is unassailable. He demands nothing for Italy that he does not concede to Germany. The United States would take the same position if it were confronted with the problem. Every self-respecting nation would do likewise. It is intolerable that there should be a minority in any country which stubbornly refuses to amalgamate itself with the population, and which demands as a matter of right the compulsory teaching of a language differing from the national language. It does not appear that the German or Austrian population in Italy is denied any of the rights which are enjoyed by Italians. If they have equal rights they can ask for nothing more; and they have equal duties, the first of which is loyalty to the flag under which they live. If they do not perform this duty willingly there is nothing for the nation to do but to enforce obedience to its laws, and to repel with all its force any attempt by a foreign nation to interfere.

Germany is about to enter the league of nations, and it is to be expected that she will endeavor to convince Italy that the German minority in Italy should not be treated with harshness. Amicable discussion will accomplish more than propaganda and threats. Time may bring about resignation, if not contentment.

These minority problems belong to Europe It is fortunate for the United States that it is not concerned with them. This country has enormous minorities of its own, all living happily and loyally under the Stars and The intermeddling by the United States in European minority quarrels would inevitably stir up bitter animosities in this country. There are additional reasons now for adhering to the advice of Washington to avoid entanglements in Europe.

Old-time Bohemianism consisted in a state of mind, not in doing without a hair cut.

HELPING SCIENCE.

Science knows no international lines. The scientist is a citizen of the world, no matter what his nationality may be. That explains why the Smithsonian institution of the United States, which was founded upon the bounty of a subject of Queen Victoria, has been deeply concerned over the distressing economic conditions existing in Germany, which have endangered scientific investigations in that country. For many years Germany has been foremost in scientific research. And the whole world will suffer if the scientists of Germany are deprived of the opportunity to work.

In order to aid in the rehabilitation of the scientific work of the German people the Smithsonian institution has forwarded to Berlin many thousands of publications since the close of the war. These were gathered through many American organizations. The largest of these consignments was recently received in Berlin. It consisted of a collection of American periodicals, weighing 13,000 pounds, which was received from the Library of Congress and forwarded to the Amerika institut in Berlin, an organization created to promote the cultural relations between Germany and the United

Not only has the Smithsonian transmitted great mass of literature to the institut, but when lack of funds threatened the suspension of the German society's operations, financial aid was rendered in sufficient degree to avert the threatened disaster.

One of the greatest services which the Smithsonian renders to science is the distribution of scientific literature to foreign countries and the collection of such foreign material for American scientific libraries. During the course of a year there pass through the exchange service of the institution nearly 500,000 packages, which contain considerably more than 1.000. 000 publications.

Isn't it odd that men who embezzle money are always such poor judges of a horse race?

WHY THE BUREAU OF EDUCATION? A recent editorial in The Post calls forth lengthy reply from Mr. John J. Tigert commissioner of education, in which that gentleman takes exception to the statement that "i is not recorded that any State has requested the Federal bureau to send an expert to study its curriculum." Mr. Tigert says that The Post is in error, and that on the contrary his ports at the request of States, cities, counties and institutions, looking toward the improvement of their schools.

Mr. Tigert is undoubtedly speaking with knowledge, and The Post is ready to give the efforts in the direction of usurpation of functions which are and ought to be the sole busican be for a Federal bureau to interfere in the primary education of the children of New England, for example, passeth understanding. It is absurd to think that the State of Vermont, the State of Masschusetts, the State of universities, colleges and preparatory school would dream of asking the Federal bureau of education to send "an expert" to "survey the field" and outline a curriculum. Every State of the Union has a natural feel-may at times call for Federal suggestions practically all State educational institutions are or should be capable of planning their own courses.

The educational systems of the United States pelong to the States. The government has no right to intermeddle, and no importunities on the part of the States or other political subdivisions should be entertained. The States have abandoned their rights in many respects for the sake of a Federal appropriation, with great resulting confusion and friction, and much more trouble will occur if the educational system' should gradually drift into bureaucratic control from Washington.

Mr. Tigert is not to blame for the establishment of the bureau of education. He is trying to do the best he can, according to law. It is the law, and not Mr. Tigert's administration of the law which deserves criticism. The aggrandizement of a Federal bureau, once it has been created, is the most natural process in the world. The tendency of all bureaus is to expand and take over new duties.

There are too many useless bureaus. The Federal bureau of education is unnecessary unless the government is to take over the educational systems of the United States.

America has no blue book in which you can find the leisure class, but you can locate them at the auction sales.

BATHING POOLS.

The House of Representatives yesterday passed the committee bill which provides for the construction of two artificial bathing pools or beaches in Washington. The measure carries an appropriation of $345,000. Representative Blanton would have had a provision that would saddle the entire cost of the work on the District of Columbia, but his amendment did not prevail, thanks largely to the efforts of Representative Zihlman, chairman of the District committee, who insisted that the legislation should have the same status as all other measures pertaining to the District.

The bill now goes to the Senate, where it will be considered by the committee on the District of Columbia, of which Senator Capper, of Kansas, is chairman. Undoubtedly Mr. Capper fully appreciates that time is the essence of the bathing beach problem and it may be expected that he will bring about a favorable action on the bill and have it reported immediately to the Senate. There is no reason to look for any opposition to this bill by any member of the Senate, but it is not improbable that some senators are not aware of the urge for haste in having the bill approved and sent to the President for signature so that work on the construction of the bathing pools or beaches may be started at once. If the members of the Senate act promptly Washington should have facilities for public bathing by next July or August. If there is any unreasonable delay the pools will not be finished until the heated period is over.

The Senate resolution calling upon the President to intervene in the coal strike does not enlarge his powers or contribute any suggestion for a solution of the problem arising from the deadlock. Mr. Coolidge could have acted without the recommendation of the Senate, and no doubt he will act now if his intervention should appear to be required. But he is the best judge of what he should do in the premises. If he should decide not to call the operators and miners into conference it will be because there is a better way to meet the situation.

The government has acted promptly in behalf of the public interest by asking for an injunction against the formation of the proposed bread trust. # KEEP LOOKING YOUNG

It's Easy-If You Know Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets

The secret of keeping young is to feel young—to do this you must watch your liver and bowels—there's no need of having a sallow complexion—dark rings under your eyes—pimples—a bilious look in your face—dull eyes with no sperkle. Your doctor will tell you 90 per cent of all sickness comes from inactive bowels and liver.

Dr. Edwards, a well-known physician in Ohio, perfected a vegetable compound mixed with olive oil to act on the liver and bowels, which he gave to his patients for years.

which he gave to his patients for years.

Dr. Edwards Olive Tablets, the substitute for calomel, are gentle in their action yet always effective. They bring about that natural buoyancy which all should enjoy by toning up the liver and clearing the system of impurities.

Dr. Edwards Olive Tablets are known by their olive color. 15c and 25c.

"Published figures do not include loans made to nonmembers of the exchange which, if included, would quite conceivably bring total borrowings by brokers up to $5,000,000,000. This is a vast sam of money and possibly more than had been expected. Publication of such a figure without a basis for comparison is of academic interest as indicating the extent of basis for comparison is of academic interest as indicating the extent of speculative activity, but carries little meaning of itself. The volume of security issues in this country, the banking resources, the well distributed earning power, our vast gold holdings, in short, the entire complicated fabric of our economic structure, will determine the reasonableness of the size of these loans in the final analysis. The fact remains that the money involved will flow freely into any field in which more profitable employment is offered." But, as a well-known commentator, as

But, as a well-known commentator pointed out to the writer today, the Treasury Department has evinced interest in the loan situation here before. For instance, in 1920, the comptroller of the currency sent out a questionnaire, asking the banks of New York for figures concerning a questionnaire, asking the banks of New York for figures concerning the amount of loans which they had outstanding above the legal rate. And these loans were very large at that time, when the so-called pawnbrokers of the street were charging 15, 20 and 25 per cent. Indeed, the comptroller pointed out at the time that the rate of 15 per cent to 30 per cent was being charged on loans aggregating $600,000,000, and held by three banks alone. Three other banks refused to respond to the by three banks alone. Three other banks refused to respond to the questionnaire on the ground that it was impracticable for them to furnish the data, and they seemed to intimate that it was nobody's business, moreover. Subsequently, the comptroller, in a public statement issued on October 18, 1920, made the following statement regarding loan following statement regarding loan conditions at usurious rates in the

"The records also show that the total loans outstanding upon which interest at 15 to 30 per cent was being charged by a portion of these banks on 42 different days, for which reports were received from them, aggregated over $1,100,000,000. It will be remembered that in my statement of July 31 the banks were charged with making loans at 10 per cent, 12 per cent and 15 per cent.

"The actual facts, therefore, in view of the loans made at 15 per cent, 20 per cent and 30 per cent, indicate that my statement was extremely conservative.

"The records also show that the amount of loans made during the same period at rates in excess of 10 per cent and up to, but not including, 15 per cent, amounted to over $1,400,000,000, there being over 11,000 of such loans.

"In addition to the above, the aggregate of the loans upon which a portion of the banks reported that they were charging, on $1 different days, interest in excess of 10 per cent, and up to, but not including, 15 per cent, was about $900,000,-000. The 'brokers' or 'street, loans upon which the New York banks during the period referred to, were charging more than 8 per cent per annum and up to 10 per cent, reach, in the aggregate, some billions of dollars additional in amount and tens of thousands in number.

"It should be understood that these loans (except in the case of our bank) represent the money loaned by the banks for their own account, and the figures do not include the loans made for their correspondent banks.

American Can Advances 15 Points; Other Large Gains Become General.

CALL RATE 51/2 PER CENT

efal to The Washington Post. New York, Feb. 9 .- Led by American Can, which advanced 15 points net, to 304, a new high level for all time under heavy buying. the stock market rallied today, except for the food shares, which con-tinued heavy. Prices improved substantially in numerous instances in spite of further calling of approximately $20,000,000 demand loans and a renewal rate of 5½ per cent, the highest since January 4. and transactions topped a 2,000,000 share total.

Plainly the public had not been frightened into selling stocks by the publication of the brokers' loans or the government's prosecution of the proposed combination in the

the government's prosecution of the government's prosecution of the proposed combination in the baking industry. The fundamental strength of the market was never, perhaps, more strikingly demonstrated, with many net gains ranging from 2 to 8 points in the general list.

American Can was hard to buy, and as a result the quotation advanced rapidly, the buying movement being inspired by a report showing the company last year had garned more than $32 a share. Too, the pending capital split-up was brought measurably nearer by the action of the stockholders today in approving the pian. The advance was interpreted as proof that important financial interests were still, identified with the buil campaign and was the signal for a general reawakening of speculative interest, with specialties in the fore. Among the conspicuously strong issues was American Snuff, which closed 8 points in gh higher; Ingersoll Rand, with a similar gain, though in light dealings; Allied Chemical, 3½ points up; United States Cast Iron Pipe, 5½ higher; and Texas Gulf Sulphur, with rises of 4 to 5 points. Other features of strength included, International Match preferred, the Jewel Tealistues. Jones Tea, Atlantic Refining, American Smelling, Electric Power and Light issues, Fairbanks Morse, Loft, Sloss Sheffeld Steel, Mackay and the preferred issues of Market Street Railway.

The copper shares came to life on rumors that a movement was afoot to form a new export association to control foreign trade in the metal. Trading throughout the oil group was active, with various stocks attaining the highest prices of the current movement. Motors were irregular, but public utilities as a group were active at advancing prices, and even some of the rails.

Among the food shares which continued under severe pressure, Ward Baking A lost, 5 points and the B stock 4½, although the preferred gained a point; Postum, at one time more than 4 points off, recovered to finish but 2 points down; Callidornia Packing lost 4½ and New York Canners 4.

Foreign exchange was steady as a rule, but French francs lost 2 points and Swiss francs a point, while Danish kroner gained 4. Canadian exchange continued weak.

Company's Net Operating Return Is $5,000,000 Above That of 1924.

BRAGG WILL SPEAK HERE

By F. W. PATTERSON.

The year ended December 31. was one of fulfillment for the Southern Railway. New records were set in operating efficiency freight revenues and net earnings With its large gross revenue, excellent condition of plant and equipment and record of operating efficiency, the railway was able to show the largest net operating income after rents in its history. This net amounted to $35,086,000, as compared with $30,443,000 in 1924. Other income also was increased through larger dividends on the owned stocks of subsidiary companies. The total income available for fixed charges, dividends and surplus amounted to $40,360,000, an increase of $5,075,000 or 14.4 per cent over 1934.

After all deductions, fixed charges and preferred dividends the surplus available for the common stock amounted to $19.579,000 or $16.31 per share, as against $14,771,000 or $12.30 per share the year before 771,000 or $12.30 per share the year before.

The high degree of business activity in the South during 1925 brought about a steadily increasing volume of traffic and the gross revenue of the Southern totaled $149,314,000, an increase of $6,827,000, or 4.8 per cent, over the preceding year. The report shows preceding year. The report shows that revenue received from freight traffic was the largest in the company's history. Many persons have been led to believe that the traffic record made by the railroads of the South in 1925 was exceptional on account of the Florida boom, but it was pointed out yesterday by an official of the road that the revenue received by Southern rail-way from Florida comprised a small part of the road's total busi

"The great industrial and agr cultural prosperity of the entire Southern territory is based on sound economic foundation," said the official. "The cotton mills, the iron and steel industry, the the fron and seet industry, the truntiure mapufacturing business, the tobacco factories and many other varied industries are prosperous and the heavy traffic therefore, of the Southern is simply reflecting the productivity of the entire South."

A American league schedule, as submitted by the committee appointed to draw up the date-list, the only important business transacted at yesterday's meeting of clubs in the junior major circuit, staged at the Washington hotel, was the unanimous refusal to permit its pitchers to use resin during the coming season.

As far as could be learned, no deals of any kind were pulled off. Torrential rains, necessitating the tournament, have conspired to delay the Lenglen-Wills match another day. Sunday, February 14, now appears the most probable date for their meeting.

The modified use of resin was approved by the joint rules committee appointed by the two leagues, but, as was the case at the December meeting when American league club officials vetoed it to a man, they followed the same procedure

ARYLAND'S revamped basketball team rose to the peak of its form last night and, with Capt. "Zuke" Supplee scaling the heights of stardom, defeated the North Carolina Tarheels in 40 minutes of the wildest, exciting and most heetic kind of basketball by a single point. 23 to 22.

At no stage of the game was either team more than 3 points ahead of the other, and the lead changed hands practically every time the ball went through the hoop, whether from the foul stripe or from scrimmage. Cubs Leave for Camp

THE Messrs. Farley, Brew-

THE Messrs. Farley, Brewer and Muldoon all have done well in their respective vocations and have never been accused of clowning in their own affairs. And yet there are many decrees spread, or smeared, on the records of the cauliflower cabinet which seem worthy of a Slivers, a Marceline or a Buck Baker.

Chicago, Feb. 9 (By A. P.).—
The 1926 major league baseball season is just around the corner. More specifically, it is less than 48 hours away. Bright and early Thursday morning the majors will be pushed out into the sunlight, spring or otherwise, by a train full of Chicago Cubs, California bound. The Cubs, departing for the Wrigley proving grounds at Catalina island, are the first outfit in the big circuits to get away for spring training. The rest of the clubs will follow suit in rapid succession.

Some twenty-odd players will leave here Thursday morning, several more will be picked up at Kansas City and a third contingent, headed by Manager Joe McCarthy, will be waiting at Los Angeles. At least 30 players will be on hand Monday morning when the tinfoil comes off the first ball and McCarthy starts his career as a big league pilot.

School Series Statistics

A THLETIC relations between Central and Gonzaga high schools apparently have been broken. The 1926 Central football schedule does not include the annual game with the 1 street eleven, which defeated the Mt. Pleasant team last year by a 6 to 0 score to win the District championship.

While no comment on the subject was forthcoming from Central officials, it is generally understood that the Mt. Pleasant school is opposed to playing schools which do not come up to their standard of eligibility rules.

The Gonzaga-Central clash of last year was the feater scholastic football season and scholastic football season and drew one of the largest crouds cere to witness a schoolby Chicago and take up the business of building a garden there. But while he is in Florida he will doubtess mutter a few syllables to Gene Tunney regarding the Dempsev fight, and the cauliflower cabinet must suspect as much. Yet, there is no expectation that Rickard will

Facing Mountainous Tasks

Central High School Coach.

THE task confronting the instructor of athletics at Business are practically nil, inasnuch as training of the squads at Business High School is one that must be faced personally to be appreciated. In fact the position might be said to serve as a very good basis for character building a gymnasium, it must be used by both boys and girls, and even during the basketball season it is available to the boys only three times a week.

Another vital reason for the decline in the amount of athletic marrial is the fact that business athletic material at Business has been hard to find and by reason of a long slege of adversity, an inferiority complex seems to possess the squads from that institution.

One can not develop a winning spirit in a school where winning the material is the fact that business the squads from that institution.

OOD athletes are turned out of Business as well as in any of the other high schools; boys who would become stars on other teams, but they are so few in number that their possibilities can not be fully brought out when they are surrounded by boys of far less ability.

THIS present basketball season furnishes a good example of the trials of the Business coach, for three different teams have been gotten together since the start of the series, scholastic failures and graduations playing haves and graduations playing havoc with Woodworth's men.

However, there is one satisfac-tion in directing athletics at Busi-ness. Every one understands the situation as regards turning out teams as good as those from the other schools and the coach is practically free from the discomfort that comes to those who direct los-ing teams. And in these days when winning seems to be the most sought for object in athletics, it must be admitted that there is some

The reason for the low standing of Business in athletics may readily be seen when we'compare the student body with that of Central, Tech, Eastern and Western. Out of a total enrollment of approximate by 1,200, the usual percentage of boys is about 300. This shows that what the school lacks in athletics, compared to the others, is man power, most of all

Oil City, Pa., Feb. 9 (By A. P.). - Joe Harris, crouching slugger of the Washington Senators and home-run king of the 1925 world series, may, as a result of a recent operation. change his batting style - and then again he may not.

Joe, during the world war, was thrown from a truck resulting in a scar near the eye. The skip tightened under the eye and this made it necessary for Harris to crouch low and look at an upward slant as pitchers heaved the ball toward him.

A few days ago the heavy-hitting Senator submitted to an operation of the plastic surgery nature by Dr. George B. Jobson, of Franklin, where Harris winters. As a result, Joe no longer will have to stoop as he bats, but Joe says he found the crouch mighty deceptive to pitchers and may continue whaling them out from the bent-over posture.

Georgetown Battery Candidates Out Today

Baseball will make its debut at Georgetown this afternoon, when the battery men report to Coach O'Reilly for workouts in Ryan gymnasium. The practice sessions will continue indoors for only the catchers and pitchers for the next few weeks until the weather is fit for the men to work out of doors. Among the twirlers of last year's squad who will report today are Burch, Bragg, Gillespie, Holland and Goddard, while Murtaugh, Phelan and Twomey are the veteran receivers who will be on deck to receive their slants.

GEORGETOWN PREPS STOP DEVITT

Frank Dwyer Shines in Last-Period Rally

of Winners.

WiTH Capt. Dwyer leading the offense, the Georgetown Preps rallied in the final period to win over a crippled Devitt five, 31 to 22. The Devittites on the eve of their southern trip, were handicapped by the loss of three regulars, including Capt. Toler. Toler.

Devitt got off to a good start but went to pieces in the last quarter when Bastable! who had been the mainstay in checking the powerful Dwyer, was retired because of per-sonal fouis.

THE score was tied at the end of the third period at 20-all, and then the Garrett Parkers, forged ahead to win by a wide margin.

The Devitt defense troubled the Georgetown players in the first half, but they easily broke through when Bastable left the game. The sensation of the game was the foul shooting of The Sand Control of the game was the foul shooting of The Sand Control of the game was the foul shooting of The Sand Control o ing of Dwyer, of the Preps who caged seven fouls in eleven tries.

COPPER AND OIL BONDS ATTRACT NEW BUYERS

Public Interest in Railroad and Traction Obligations Wanes.

NEW FOREIGN FINANCING

New York, Feb. 9 (By the Associated Press)-Waning interest in railroad liens and a revival of activity in copper and bil issues were the contrasting features of today's irregular bond market. Firmer money rates resulting from the extensive calling of bank loans this week tended to restrict buying operations except where special developments were an influence.

The buying movement in local traction bonds, which has carried most of these issues to the highest than the state of the best of levels in several years since the city announced its new policy of cooperation in transit matters, seemed to have lost its force today. Buying orders continued to day. Buying orders continued to crop out here and there, however, accounting for a rise of more than 5 points in the long-neglected Twenty-third Street Railway 5s. The other bonds in this group were firm but gains were limited.

Copper company obligations, after lagging behind the rest of the list for weeks, moved forward vigorously in response to the an-

Chile Copper 6s advanced more than a point to a new top price for the year and a lively demand developed for Anaconda. American Smelting, Andes and Grandy issues.

Additional price advances for crude and refined petroleum products, coupled with the favorable outlook for new mergers in the industry, kept interest alive in the Legion Asks Clothes for Men Released From Hospitals.

Appeal for clothes for former service men who have become destitute through illness was made to the public yesterday by Charles Kohen, chairman of the welfare committee of the District department of the American Legion.

Gifts, Mr. Kohen said, should be sent him at 606 Thirteenth street northwest. Many veterans, he said, are being discharged from hospitals without sufficient clothes to protect them.

Accumulated dividends on the preferred stock of the Jewel Tea.

Co. were reduced to $27.50 today with declaration of a back dividend of $2.25 a share, in addition to the regular quarterly disbursement of the holders of record March 18.

Net profit of Gillette Safety Razor Co. for 1925 increased to $1,089,857, equal to $6.04 a share, against $10,122,473, or $5.06 a share the year before. Total turrent assets, including $5,242,619

New York, Feb. 9 (By A. P.) .igh Low Last Characterizing 1925 as a year unusual construction progress and new business development, official of the Alabama Power Co. axnounced today that gross earning? of $11,724,117 for the period represented an increase of 30 per cent over 1924, while net earnings of 55,372,180 were 24 per cent larger. The industries of Alabama, particularly the mines and steel mills, are operating at full capacity, said the report, and railroad traffic is in such volume as to indicate a large and permanent degree of prosperity throughout the State.

WALL STREET GOSSIP

Potomaka Mills, Massachusetts, today omitted the quarterly dividend due at this time. Payment of $1.50 a_share was made three months ago.

Approximately $2,000,000,000 Approximately $2,000,000,000 was paid by the packers of the United States to the farmers in 1925 for meat animals dressed under Federal inspection, an increase of nearly $300,000,000 over 1924, it installabels to the state of it is calculated by Oscar G. Mayer, of Chicago, president of the Institute of American Meat Packers. This increase in live stock values was a substantial contribution toward an improved agricultural condition, equivalent to an increased average value of about $4 per head on every beef animal, sheep and hog dressed during the year, the statement said.

The chief increase occurred in the price of hogs, which averaged nearly 50 per cent higher than the year before and almost 50 per cent higher than 1913, a normal prewar year. Prices paid for cattle increased 10 per cent, calves 20 per cent and sheep and lambs 12 per cent. The hog supply was 20 per cent smaller than in 1924. Present hog prices were said to be 19 per cent higher than a year ago, when prices already had shown considerable advance over the levels which prevailed during much of 1924, the report said.

Surplus of the Chicago & North-western railway for 1925 after charges, has turned out to be somewhat better than was shown in the preliminary report in January, Frederick W. Sargent, president, revealed today. The amount was $10,784,578, equal to $6.35 a share on the common's after preferred dividends. The preliminary report made it $1,433,000, or $6.10 a share. Capital expenditures on additions and improvements last year were $6,637,914, Mr. Sargent said. Operating ratio was reduced 2.81 per cent to 77.84 per cent. Transportation costs decreased about $3.500,000. Maintenance of way expenditures were $20,988,337 and equipment maintenance, $30,613,-192. Mr. Sargent expected gross for the first half of 1926 to show slight improvement over 1925 with
